

DOLWYDDELAN HISTORICAL SOCIETY 2024

7.00pm in the I.T. Suite, behind Ysgol Dolwyddelan

Autumn programme . . .

Monday 2nd September

Michael Blackburn – The Industrial Revolution in North Wales

Monday 7th October

Bob Morris - Nye Bevan

Thursday 4th November

Rhys Mwyn - Archaeology of Owain Glyndwr

The unveiling of the information board in Pont Rufeinig on the 12th June, by George Studor Jnr, son of one of the soldiers who trained here in May 1944 and Dafydd Ellis, Chair of the Dolwyddelan Historical Society.

A letter from George after his visit to Dolwyddelan . . .

A BIG thankyou to the people of Dolwyddelan, the Historical Society and especially Shaun Hewitt for all the support to put this town and the spot at Roman Bridge Station "on the map" for myself and the large number of family and friends of 83rd Infantry Division veterans back home in America. Our oldest veteran Al Klugiewicz, who just celebrated his 108th birthday, was recently able to talk about the flooding that happened while his unit, the 331st Regiment was there.

I saw many goals met. I found out exactly where my dad's company headquarters were. Shaun helped me find many places that my father wrote about in his letters like the old movie house (The Forum) and the